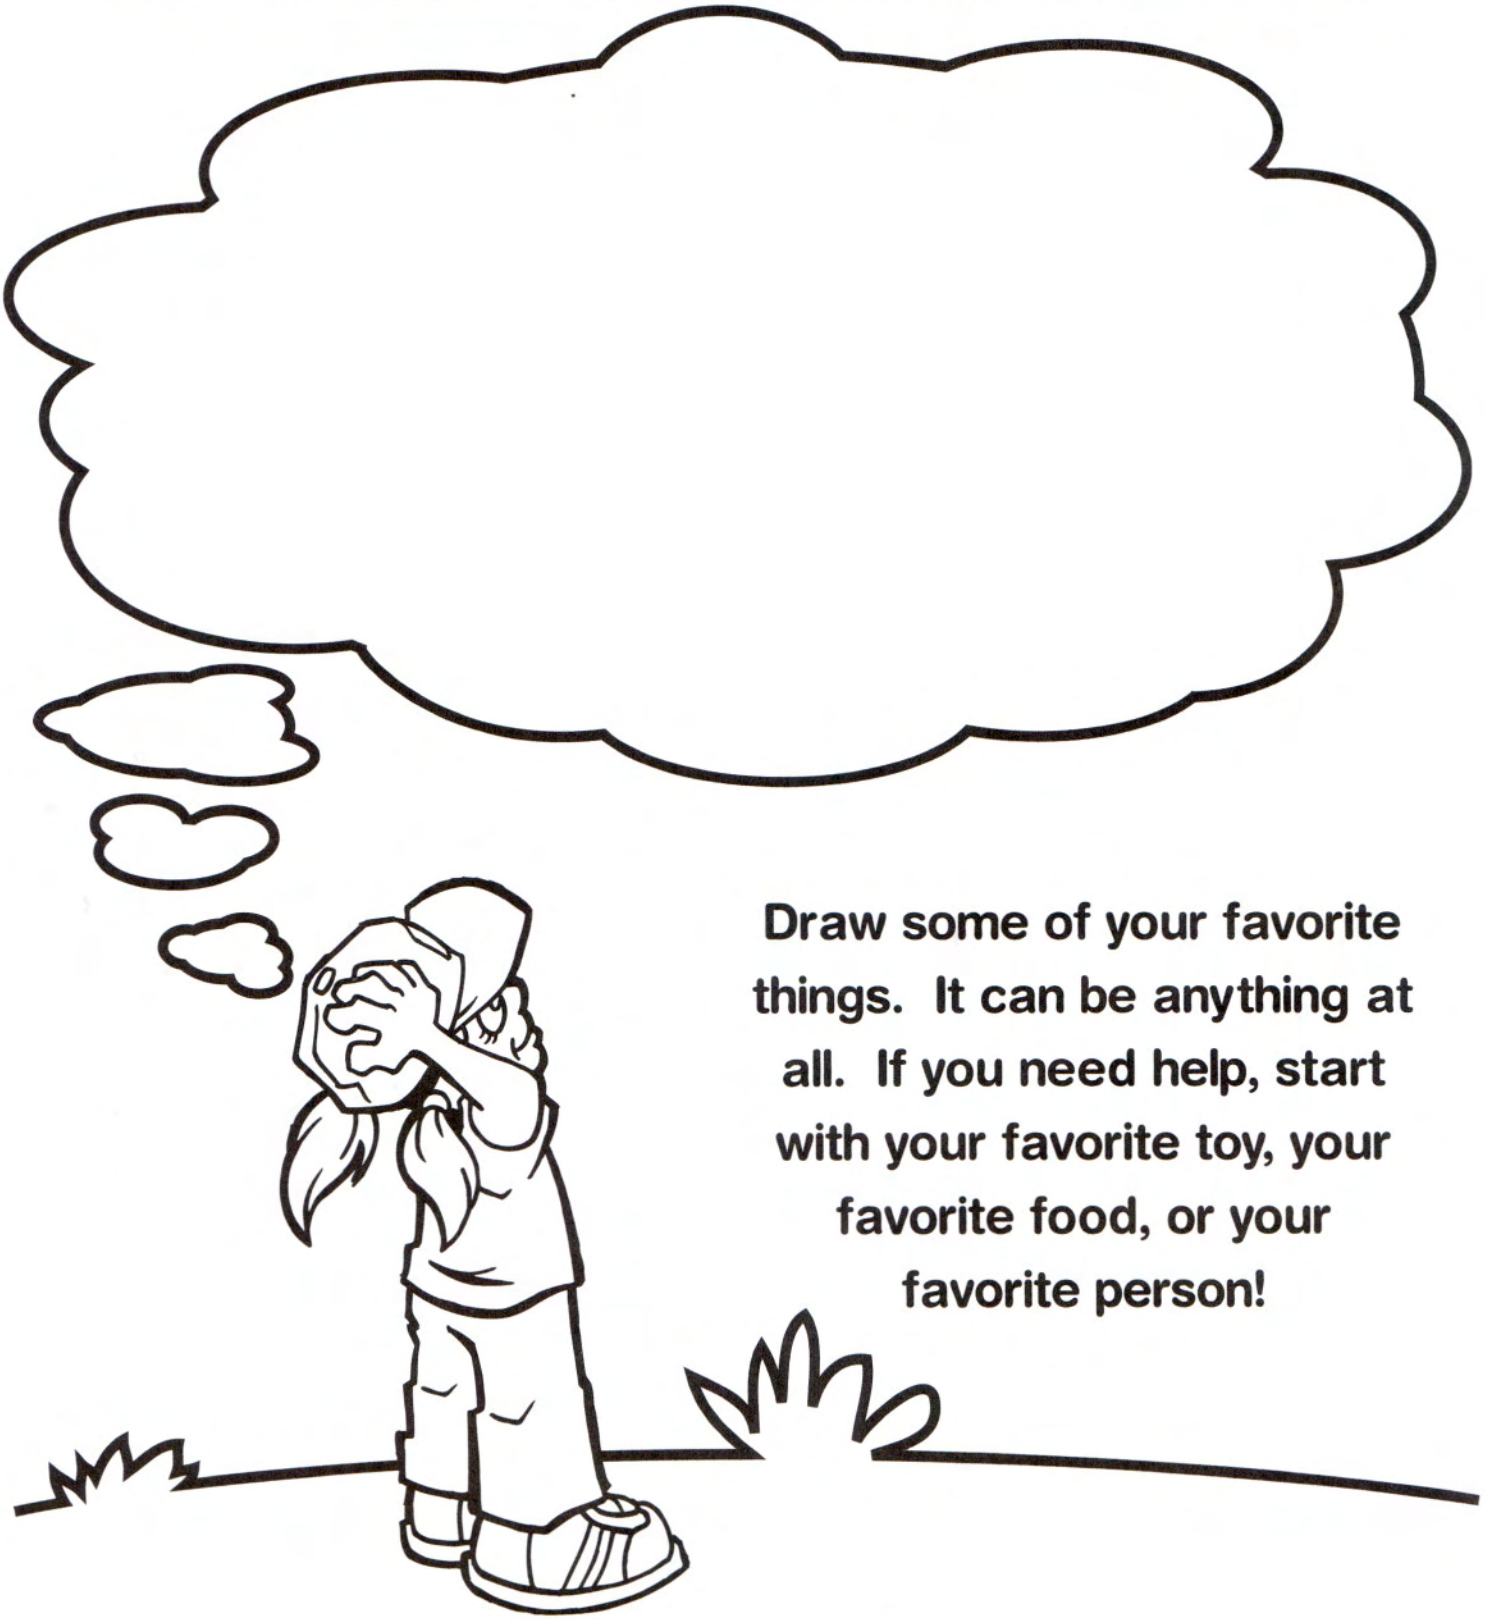
EMERGENCY DIAL 9-1-1
" WHEN SECONDS COUNT, COUNT ON

Paramedics or EMTs are often the first to arrive when there has been a medical emergency.

MY FAVORITES



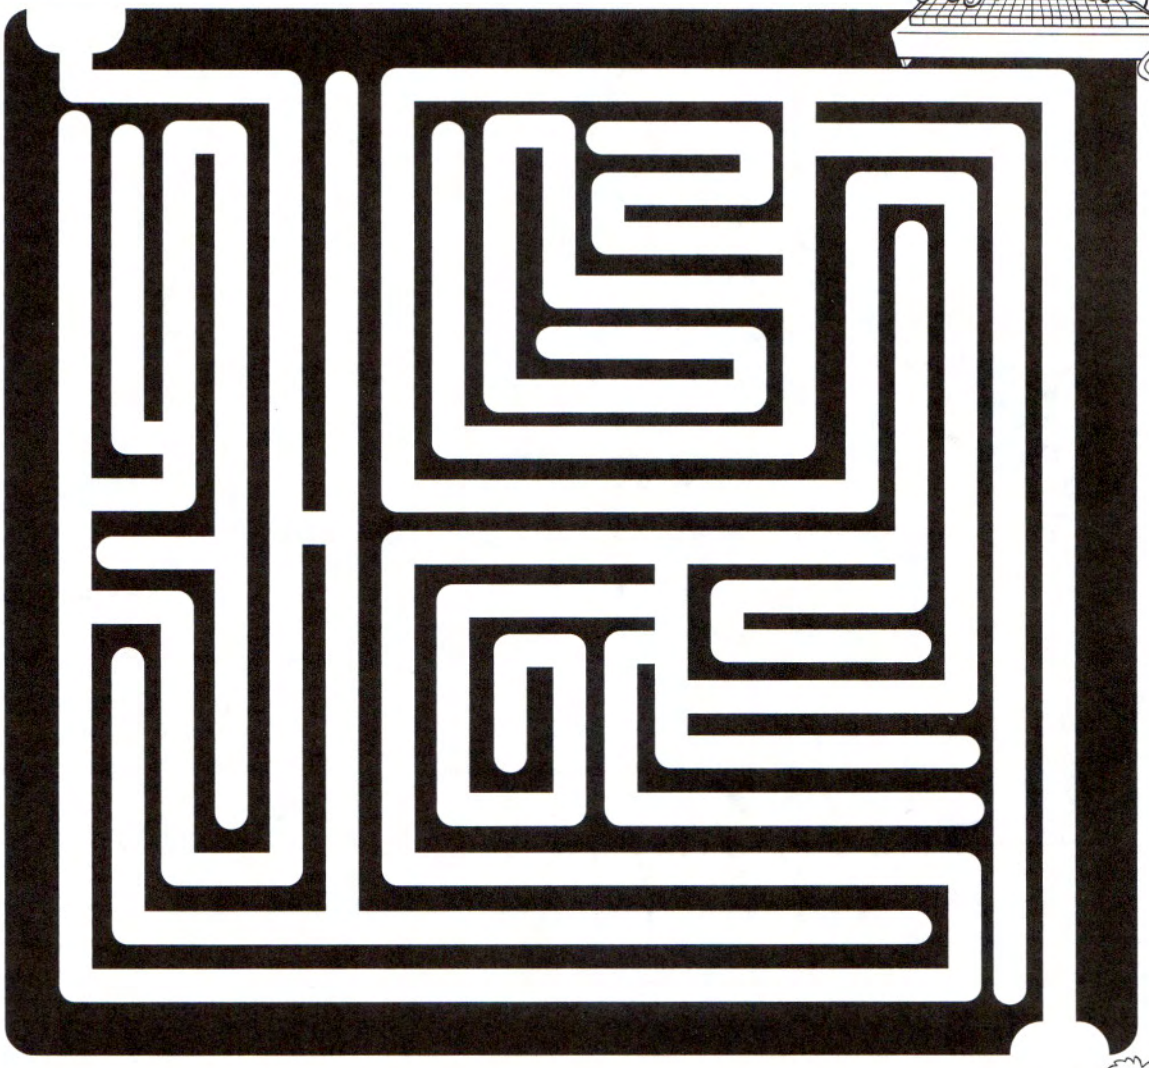
Draw some of your favorite things. It can be anything at all. If you need help, start with your favorite toy, your favorite food, or your favorite person!

The person who answers the phone when you dial 9-1-1 is called a dispatcher. He or she is trained to help in any kind of emergency.

MAZE CRAZE

Help the 9-1-1 dispatcher direct the ambulance, police and firetruck to your house! See how quickly you can do it, every second counts!

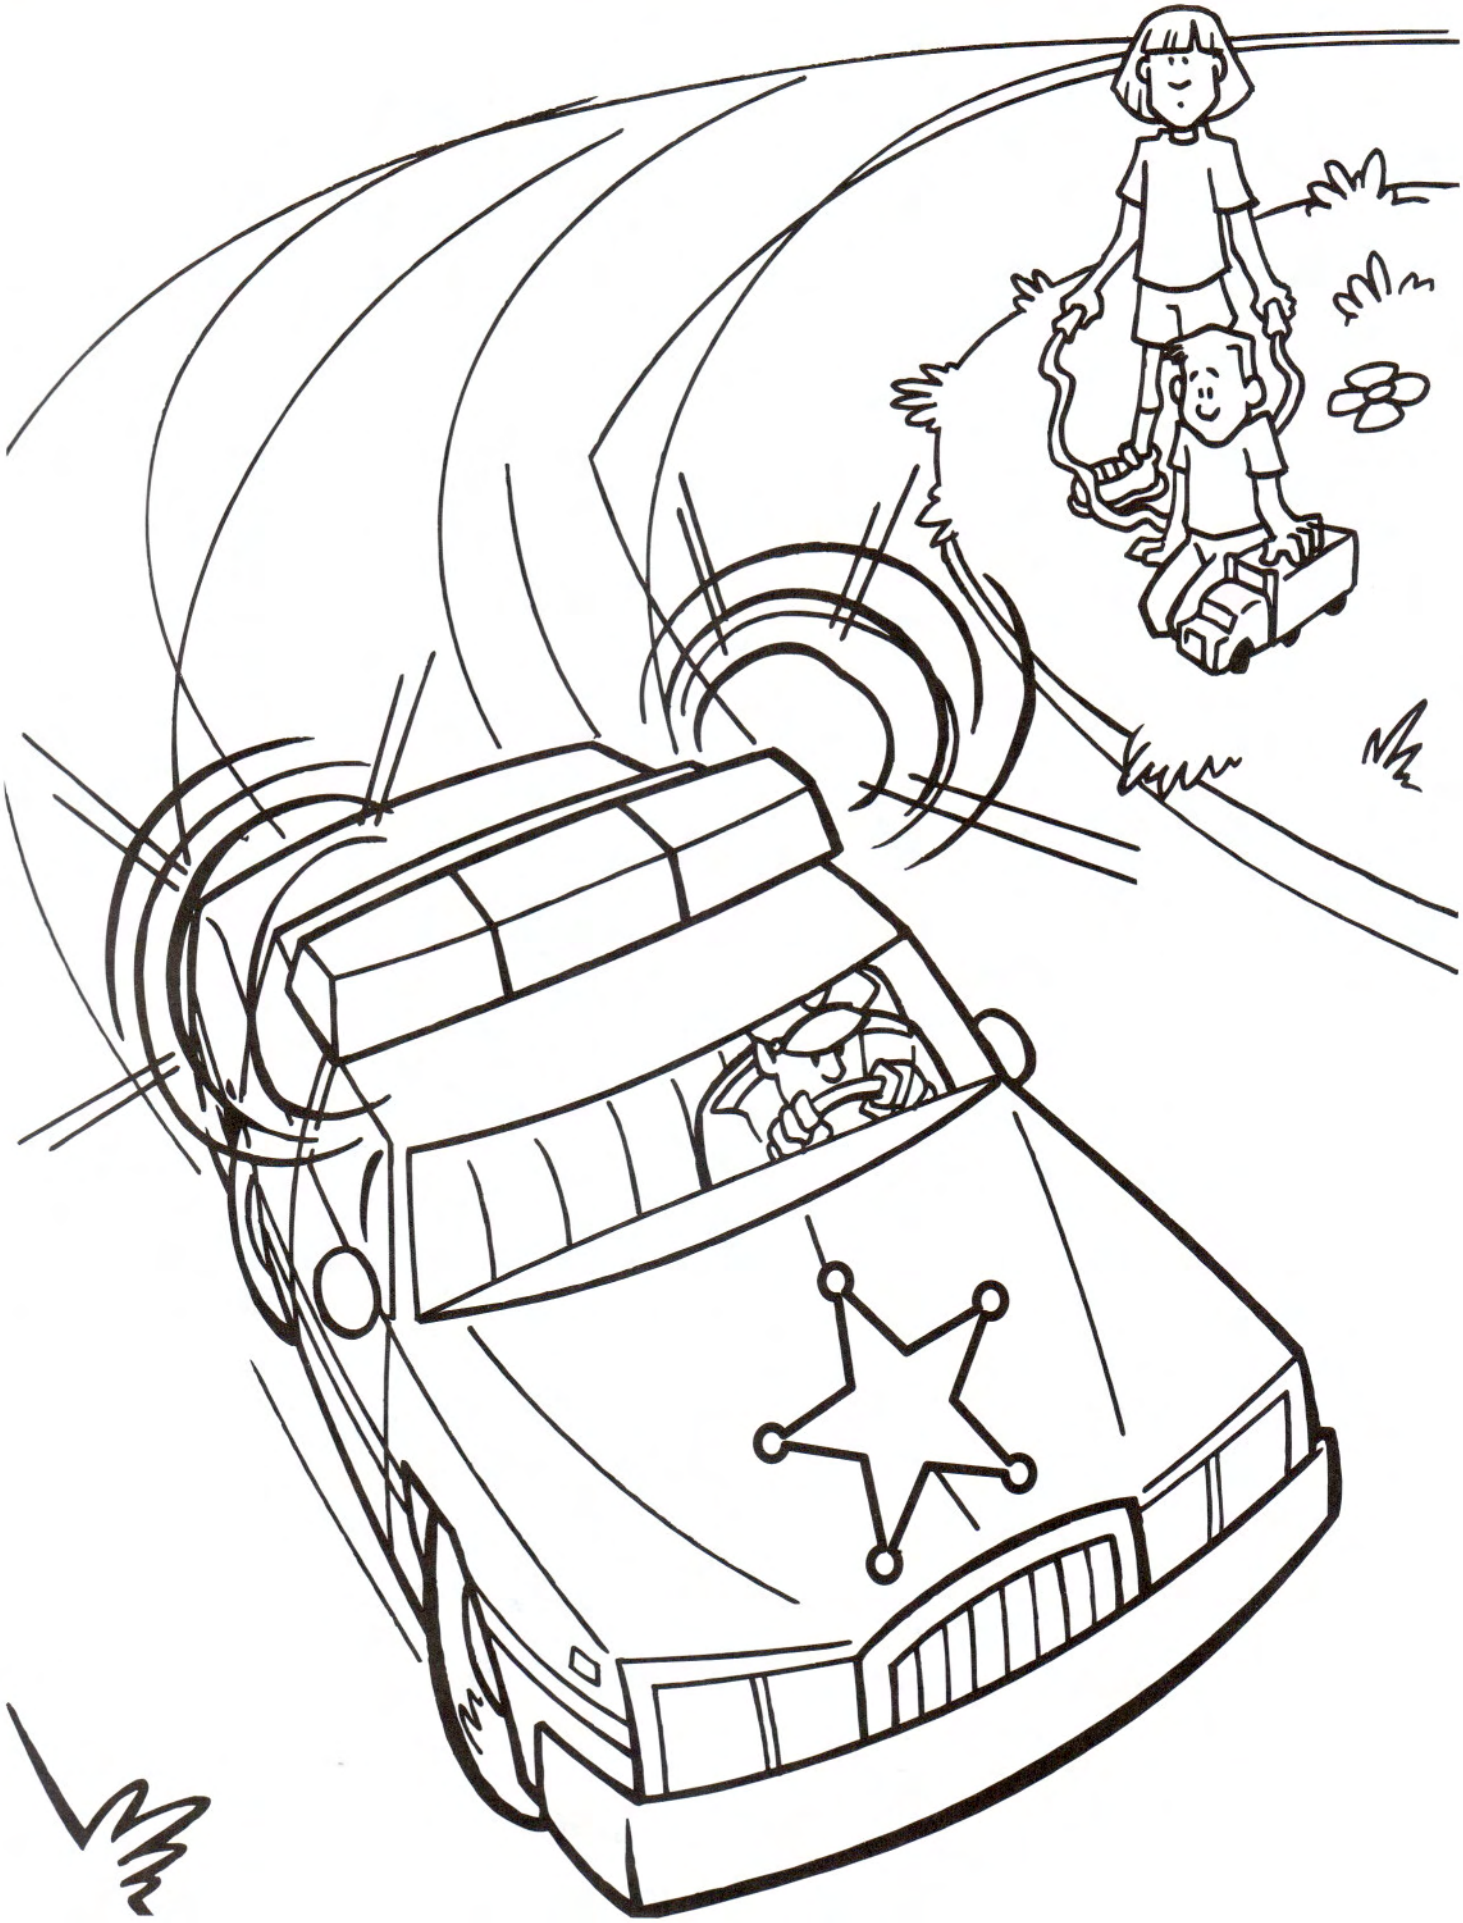
Start Here



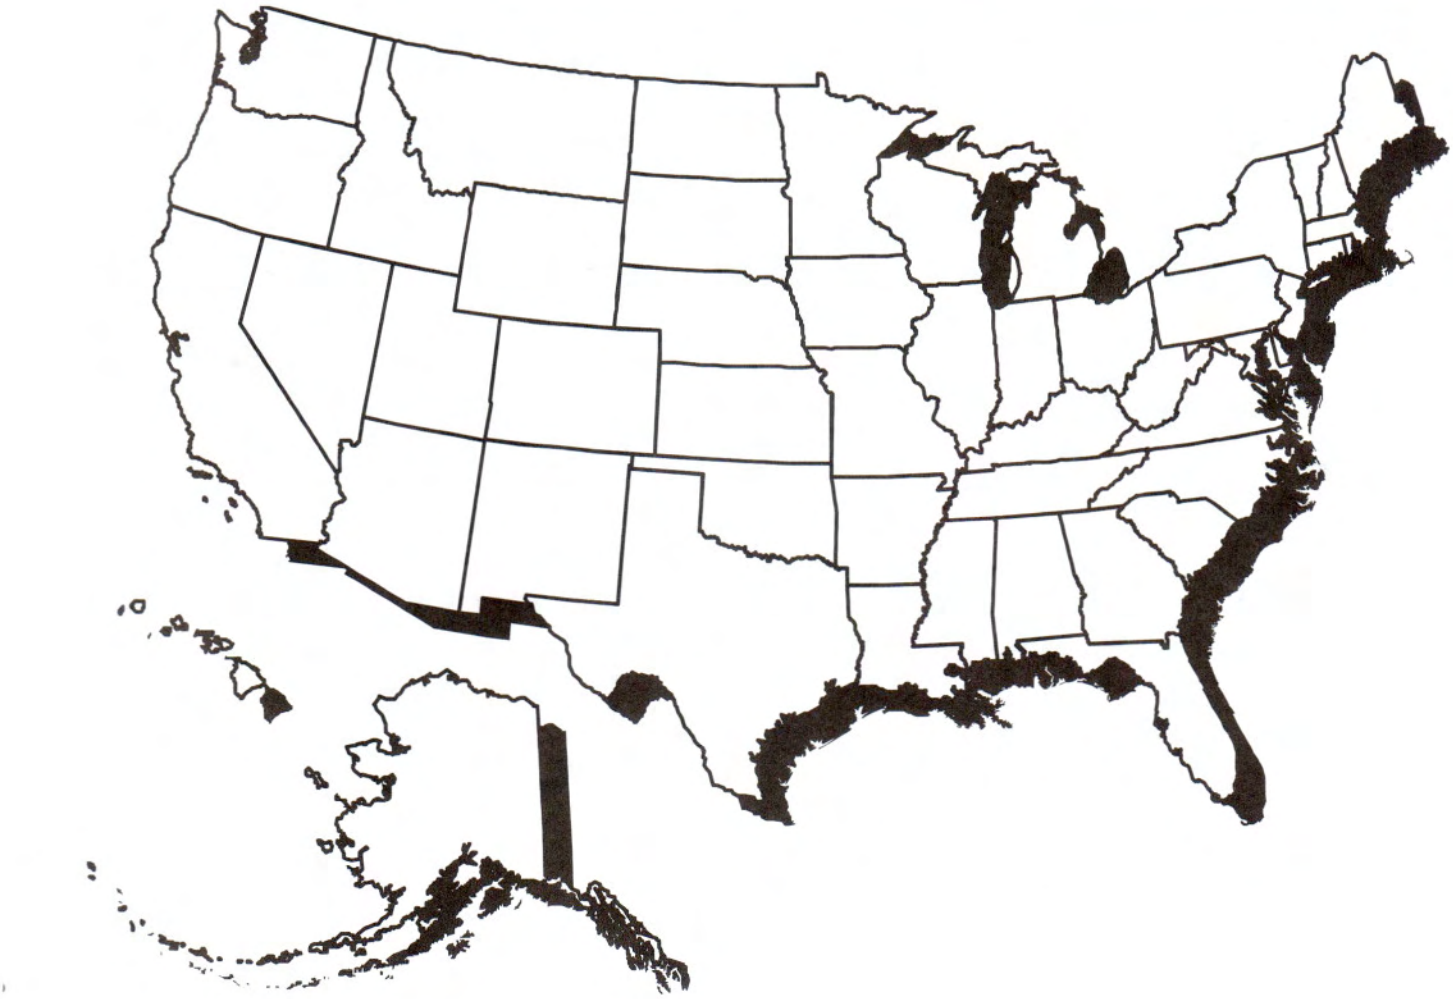
If you ever need to dial 9-1-1, be sure to speak clearly and calmly. When there is an emergency, every second counts! Answer all of the questions the dispatcher asks the best you can.

There are many reasons to dial 9-1-1, but this is not one of them.

Remember, 9-1-1 is for actual emergencies only!

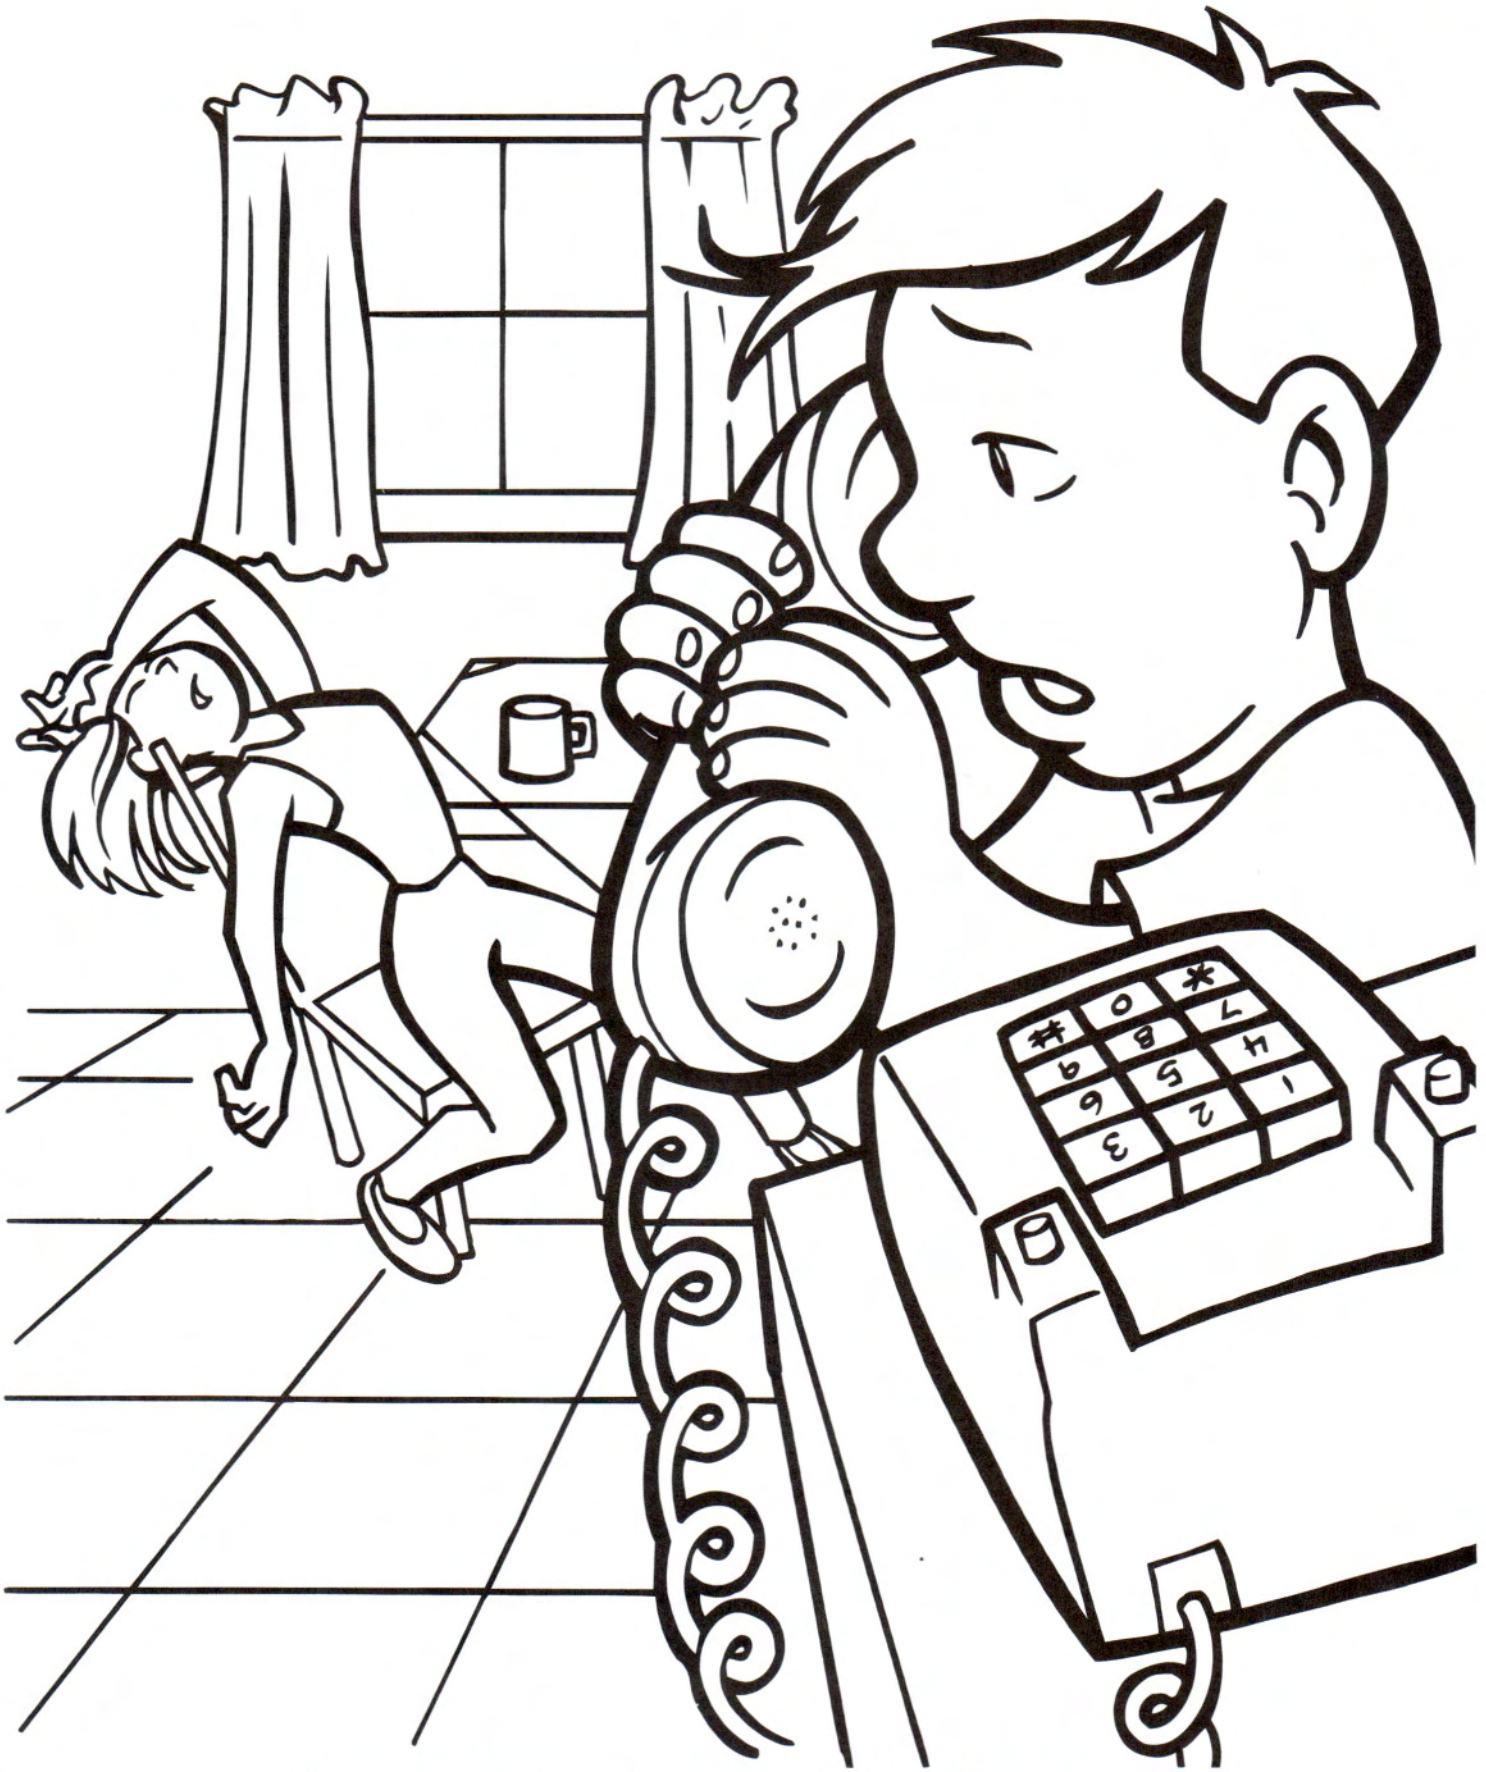


OUR UNITED STATES



The United States of America consists of 50 states. Which state do you live in? Can you find it on the map? When you find it, color it red. Color all of the states that touch your state in blue. Can you name the states in blue? Now color all of the other states you can name in green. If you need some help, ask your teacher or an adult. You can also use an atlas to help identify the ones you are unsure of.

Police officers often respond to calls made to 9-1-1.



If an emergency occurs, pick up the phone, dial the numbers 9-1-1. Tell the person who answers what the emergency is and answer all of the dispatcher's questions.

Remember that 9-1-1 is for emergencies only. False alarms cost authorities valuable time that could be better spent saving a life!
